“Awareness on road accident & traffic discipline” was conducted by NCC unit of our College with 30 cadets between 9.30 a.m. and 12.00 noon with help of traffic controlling officials. During this awareness programme NCC volunteers participated actively and given awareness to the public who did not follow the traffic rules. Our NCC volunteers advised people who were not wearing helmet in their two wheelers, some youngsters travelled with 3 persons and they were also noticed by our volunteers and gave the friendly advice to follow the traffic discipline. Some people didn't wear seat belt while travelling in car, they were also identified and suggested them to wear seat belt while driving. From this awareness programme our NCC volunteers trained about the traffic rules. Nearly 50 cases were caught.
